

Chess Junior

Chess Junior – Nominated “Golden Rocking Horse 2019” Who will win in the category “Everything for Children’s Hearts”?

Graz, 2 April 2019, 10:00 a.m. – For the 18th time the family magazine familie&co and the German Association of the Toy Industry (DVSJ) is presenting the coveted “Golden Rocking Horse” award. The prize is awarded to toys which, in the opinion of the jury, are particularly "original and suitable for children". One thing is especially important: It should be fun! If there is something to learn or discover at the same time - all the better.

Once again, the starting point for the familie&co editorial team was the visit to the International Toy Fair in Nuremberg at the end of January. After detailed tests and consultation, the 10 best toys were selected in six categories.

The Austrian company CUBES.ART Chess Innovations presented itself at the New Exhibitor Center of the Nuremberg International Toy and immediately made it into the Top 10 of the category “Everything for Children's Hearts” with “Chess Junior”, the first preparatory game for chess.

The Online-Voting to determine the category winner starts on 5 June. Afterwards, a jury of children and adults will determine the overall winner. The toys will be presented in more detail in the July issue of familie&co – in newsstands as of 5 June!
